HUGHES AGAIN PUTS BAN ON RUSS SOVIET

PLEAS FAIL TO WIN THE SECRETARY OF STATE

NON-RECOGNIATION TO BE ADHERED TO

Favorable Report of Senator Brookhart and Relief Aids Met by Charge that Despotism Still Obtains in the Land.

Washington.—Taking issue with Senator Brookhart, members of the American Relief administration and others who have been on the ground, Secretary Hughes has declared continued adherence to a non-recognition policy.

Senator Brookhart and Colonel Charles M. Willoughby of the relief administration, stated within the past week that Russia's is probably the most stable government on the European continent. Senator Brookhart declared the Russian people are happy and contented and thoroughly satisfied with their government. He said further that the soviet government was ready to keep all its rightful obligations.

Secretary Hughes admits that there has been an improvement in the economic conditions in Russia, but he still asserts that the people are denied complete freedom by a tyrannical minority. He states that "the persons of our citizens in Russia are for the moment free from harm," but declares that property still is being confiscated and Russia's obligations to America citizens remain repudiated. The secretary adds:

"What is most serious is that there is conclusive evidence that those in control at Moscow have not given up their original purpose of destroying existing governments wherever they can do so throughout the world."

MONTE RIO HOTEL LOOTED CLERK SHOT BY ROBBERS

San Francisco.—Four bandits held up the fashionable River View hotel at Monte Rio, shot Joseph Dearing, St. Mary's College athlete, in a gun battle and escaped with $10,000 in loot. Of this amount, it was reported, $1,500 was cash belonging to the hotel and the remainder consisted of cash and jewels placed in the safe by hotel guests. Hundreds of bay city excursionists joined in a man hunt, which was quickly organized in an attempt to intercept the gang.

Sheriff J. H. Boyes, arriving from Santa Rosa, asked police to locate and arrest members of a gang who became involved in a fued with Dearing, as a result of which two men are serving sentences in the county prison of Sonoma county. Two weeks after Dearing's testimony had sent members of the gang to prison, he was attacked by three men in his tent at Monte Rio. Friends of the imprisoned gangsters are suspected of having been implicated in this assault, the sheriff said.

RIZAL GOVERNOR ACCEPTS POST AS MAYOR OF MANILA

Manila.—Governor Rodriguez of Rizal province, adjoining Manila, has accepted the appointment tendered him as mayor of Manila. Rodriguez is a member of the Democratic party, which polled a plurality at the last general election and which Quezon maneuvered out of control by combining his Collectivista party with the old Nationalists.

It is understood from a reliable source that the Democrats have secretly agreed the issue raised by Quezon is not a national but a political question, since they are not opposed to Governor General Wood.

Another Bid For Intervention

London.—That Great Britain is making another bid for America to help untangle Europe's troubled affairs, is the interpretation on unofficial utterances by one of Britain's ministers as London awaited a reply from France and Belgium on her note to Germany. Sir William Johnson Hicks said a copy of the note had been dispatched "to our friends across the water in the hope we may arrive jointly at a solution which will insure the peace of the world." At the same time he issued a warning that conflict is in the air.

Woman Driver Drives On

San Mateo.—An unidentified woman autoist ran down and seriously injured Andrew Sierra, seven years old, son of William Sierra, a gardener near here, while the boy was walking on the highway. According to witnesses, the woman driver stopped, declared that the accident was unavoidable and drove away without offering to render aid to the boy victim.

FREIGHT SHIPPERS WILL RECOVER ON LOSSES

Railroads Decide to Pay All Damage Claims Caused by Strike.—California's End Alone Being Nearly $10,000,000.00.

Sacramento.—Superor California shippers of perishable freight, who suffered millions of dollars in losses last year through the car shortage and delays resulting from the shopmen's strike, are to recoup their losses within the next few months through settlement of their claims against the railroads on a substantial basis.

This is the announcement of W. F. Whiteman, freight claim agent of the Western Pacific, who spent a day in conference with officials of the California fruit exchange, during which initial steps were taken toward reaching a basis of agreement.

Whiteman has just returned from Chicago, where representatives of the railroads reached their decision to make good the losses of the shippers in part.

Between $10,000,000 and $12,000,000 in damage claims for losses on freight in transit last year have been filed by California shippers. It is recalled that the railroad situation during the shipping season last year worked much hardship, and during the acute car shortage matters reached a crisis. The grape growers, in particular, were hard hit, being unable to move their crop, much of which rotted on the vines. The western Pacific expects to be able to make settlements by November.

Regarding the prospects for the 1923 shipping season, the railroads have profited by their experience last year and added to their stock for the purpose of taking care of shippers. However, the eastward movement of perishable freight promises to be the heaviest in years and traffic is already far beyond the volume at this time last year.

STATE DEPARTMENT DENIES BACKING CHESTER INTERESTS

Washington.—Some of the uncertainty that has existed as to the attitude of the United States government toward the concessions granted by Turkey to the Ottoman-American Development company, was cleared up with the publication of a letter officially setting forth the policy of the state department, denying that the concessionnaires had been "promised moral or political indorsement or have received assurances that in the event of any dispute this government would be bound to defend the validity of the concession."

"It may be added," says the letter, "that neither the department (of state) nor its officer in the field took part in the negotiations for the concessions. These were carried on directly by the parties concerned.

STATE GETS EXTENSION ON $100,000 ROAD AID MONEY

San Francisco.—The date when the $100,000 raised by California motorists to build the Yosemite valley highway would have reverted to the United States government under a trust agreement, has been changed from August 17, 1923 to August 17, 1925. The money was raised to grade the seventeen-mile unimproved lateral from Briceburg to El Portal, Mariposa county. The money is now being held by a San Francisco bank under the trust agreement.

The state highway engineer was ordered recently to proceed with the work of surveying for the new highway.

Women For World Court

Portland, Ore.—Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills College, Oakland, Cal., was elected president of the American Association of University Women at the convention here. The association not only indorsed participation of the United States in a permanent world court, but indorsed a resolution to request the president to present to the senate at the earlist possible date the covenant of the League of Nations for referendum.

Bergdoll May Come Back

Washington.—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll may return to the United States and serve a prison sentence for evading the draft. When Mrs. Emma Bergdoll applied for a passport to visit her son in Europe, her lawyers indicated that she would use her influence to have him return and make restoration of at least a part of his estate a legal possibility. The alien property office holds property valued at about $1,300,000 belonging to him.

Apple Show After 5 Years

Paradise.—Revival of the apple exposition, discontinued in 1918 because of the war, is being planned to include farm products of all kinds and to hold an agricultural and industrial exposition.

W. that he and a companion were responsible for a series of fires that cost half a million dollars, including the recent big fires at Anaheim, Fullerton, Riverside and San Bernardino. A state-wide search is being made for the "companion."

COUNTY FAIR TO BE HUMMER

Santa Clara county's new fair grounds site, at King road, off East Santa Clara street, San Jose, has to date cost the Fair association slightly over $100,000 in the acquiring of the site and construction of permanent buildings. The opening fair on the grounds will be held Aug. 11 to 19, this being the first county fair held here in 20 years.

The grounds will be brilliantly illuminated for the coming fair, and electricians are now busy installing the lights in the automobile parking space and in the new buildings. A special scheme of decoration is being planned for the three immense exhibit tents in which the county displays will be housed.

J. R. Wilson, a prominent member of the San Jose Chamber of Commerce and executive head of the County Fair Association, states that the success of the fair from an exhibit standpoint of view assured. Most of the leading manufacturers and industries of the county have secured space and numerous Chambers of Commerce in the county will have official exhibits.

LEGION WILL WAR ON DOPE

Americanism Commission Director Powell Makes First Announcement of Organization's Activity.

Ninety-five per cent of the ever-increasing dope peddlers in America are of alien birth or parentage, declared Garland W. Powell, director of the Americanism commission of the American Legion, in an address at Indianapolis recently. Mr. Powell said that if the drug menace is not checked this country will become a drug-soaked nation within 25 years.

This is the first official announcement that the American Legion would enter the war on illicit narcotic dealers and dispensers of habit-forming drugs. Mr. Powell urged that the restriction of immigration to this country would check the traffic in dope and that the Legion would proceed to that end.

In describing the activities of the dope peddlers, Mr. Powell made these assertions:

"One person in every seventy-three uses drugs as a habit. There are 1,500,000 persons now in America who cannot face existence without drugs, and who are swiftly sinking into a condition of hopelessness and death.

"The death of the drug addict is premeditated murder on the part of the peddler, for he knows the fatal result of the habit. If I were in a position to introduce a bill in congress or in state legislatures, I would make capital punishment the penalty for peddling drugs."

Mr. Powell made the statement that the use of dope is steadily growing among children. He declared that federal investigators had recently found cases of drug addiction among high school students and also among the pupils of lower grades. He cited one instance where a peddler was arrested as he waited outside for his "customers" to come from their classes.

Alaska Women Active.

Women enrolled in the American Legion Auxiliary at Juneau, Alaska, are so earnest in their efforts to aid the disabled ex-service men that they have decided to "adopt" a hospital. They have written to R. H. Arne, director of war service, Pacific division of the Red Cross, suggesting that Walla Walla, Wash., hospital doubtless would be pleased to be "adopted" by the Auxiliary and receive the comforts they are eager to supply.

Drive for Better Streets.

The American Legion post of Rockdale, Tex., led a drive by the citizens there on the bad streets of the town. Every man, woman and child took a day off to repair the thoroughfares. All the trucks and wagons in the city were used to haul gravel and other materials, while the citizens did the manual labor. Although the Legion post is less than a year old, it owns a suite of well-equipped clubrooms.

5,000-Foot Peak Collapsed

AUTO WRECKED BY COAST TRAIN

Nels Peterson and L. W. Castro had a very narrow escape from violent death Tuesday when the Peterson truck was hit by the passenger train from the north, which amputated the radiator as cleanly as tho by machinery, and broke one wheel.

The truck was going east on Campbell avenue, and a freight was switching south of the crossing by the Ainsley Cannery. The twomen saw the train and heard the bell and were watching the movements of the freight, not observing the on-coming passenger from the other side until too late to stop.

Mr. Castro jumped and suffered badly bruised knee, but otherwise the two men were uninjured, which was certainly a miraculous escape.

RETURN ADDRESS ON ENVELOPES

Many individuals, as well as some business men and concerns place heir return card on the backs of envelopes. All postal employees know how objectionable and inconvenient this is, and postmasters should make special effort to have the practice discontinued. It should be pointed out that the proper place for the senders return card is in the upper left corner of the address side where postal employees are accustomed to look for it and that the placing of the return card on the backs of envelopes not only consumes unwarranted time and labor, as the letters must be turned over to read the return address, but it may cause letters, when undeliverable to be sent to being returned to the senders. All this could be avoided by placing the return card in the upper left corner of the address side.

W. Irving Glover, 3rd Asst. Postmaster General

The above article was in one of the daily Postal Bulletins sent to all post offices, and if the public would observe the direction it would facilitate handling of mail..

Many letters are mailed without any return address which often greatly helps in their delivery, and insures their return to sender. Otherwise they go to the dead letter iffice, are opened and if the contents reveals the sender, the letter is returned with a three cent fine to help pay the expense of this department.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Werthenback and daughter, Joy, motored to Campbell from Saskatchewan, Canada, and have been visiting Mrs. Werthenback's brother, Mr. E. R. Stevens. Monday they went to Fresno, another sister, Mrs. Snyder,residing in Oakland, accompanied them.

CAMPBELL DISCUSSING TOWN INCORPORATION

In the absence of Pres. E. C. Merrill of the Commercial Association, Vice-Pres. G. S. Robson called the meeting to order and presided until called away. J. F. Wehmeryer then took the chair.

H. C. Smith acted as secretary pro tem.

The resignation of M. E. Kennedy as secretary was accepted and T. E. Tucker was elected for the balance of the year.

J. D. Blaine reported for the committee on co-operative advertising giving figures on the estimated cost and size of sheet. On motion the committee was authorized to proceed with the plan.

Elliott Tucker reported that as yet no watchman had been secured. After some favorable discusion a committee was authorized appointed to work with a committee of the Improvement Club gathering data to be presented at a called meeting for the consideration of incorporation.

This proposition has received much favorable comment about town recently and the association is desirous of knowing just what is the community sentiment.

THEY THOUGHT THEY DIDN'T NEED TO

"When my advertising in the daily newspapers ceases," once wrote the late John Wanamaker, "it will be because I have closed down my stores and retired from business."

Day & Martin, the famous English shoe-black manufacturers, built up a reputation for their product through several generations. Their successors thought that it would be a waste of money further to advertise a brand that had become a household word in Great Britain and, indeed, in America. So they quit. When the company went out of business a couple of years ago the manager said the failure was due to suspension of advertising; the people had become familiar with some newer, more thoroughly advertised product and used it instead.

All of which is by way of introduction to something the Mail-News would quote from an article in Collier's Weekly of June 23, by Scammon Lockwood:

"I know of one concern that did think it could save the cost of the advertising. This was the Pearline company. Shortly after James Pyle, the originator of Pearline, died, the people in charge thought that the product was so well established that they need no longer do any advertising. They were at that time spending about a half million dollars a year on advertising, and the annual profits of the business were said to be well over a million dollars. They stopped the advertising. Almost immediately the business began to fall off, but when these gentlemen realized that they had made a mistake it was too late. The entire business was sold a few years later to a competitor for about $12,000.

WEST HAS INTEREST IN EAST

That western states are vitally interested in conditions which maintain prosperity in the east is indicated by a recent article in the Knickerbocker Press of Albany, New York. This article points out the large shipments of Pacific Coast lumber that arrive in the Hudson river for distribution for local building in that section of the country. It states that nearly every lumber dealer in Albany, New York, now receives shipments of this western lumber, which is finding its way into building where heavy timbers are used.

It is generally admitted that large timbers for construction work cannot be obtained elsewhere than on the Pacific coast and that the Douglas fir from Washington and Oregon, which is the most economical timber that can be used, has made possible the building boom in that section of the country.

This should be welcome news to Pacific coast states, and it should impress every citizen in the west with the necessity for taking an interest in sound policies, both state and national, which will tend to maintain normal growth and construction activity in this nation.

A TELEPHONE NATION

In 1877 the number of telephones per hundred population in both the United States and Europe was none. In 1899 the United States had less than one telephone per hundred population and Europe had barely a fraction of a telephone. In 1921 Europe had a little better than one telephone per hundred population while the United States had risen to more than thirteen telephones per hundred population and now has a total of 14,500,000 in use, which is two-thirds of all the telephones in the whole world.

In this country there is about one telephone to every two farm dwellings, a convenience unheard of in other countries. This wonderful telephone development is due to efficient organization, to the cumulative effect and importance of investments great and small in all the apparatus and equipment required for the transmission of speech, as well as to the foresight and business acumen of those who have directed the policy of the telephone systems from the beginning, and to the fact that in this country telephone development has been left to private enterprise under reasonable governmental regulation.

RADIO AND WORLD ENLIGHTENMENT

"Since Gutenberg devised his rude wooden type blocks and made printing possible nearly five centuries ago, there has been no single investment so closely touching human interest and human welfare as this latest miracle of the ages," says James G. Harbord, president of the Radio Corporation of America.

"Its messages are flashed over land and sea with the speed of light; the enemy submarine cannot cut the cables of the wireless, the winter storms cannot weight it down with sleet or summer suns expand it to slackness: Its potentiality includes utility and recreation; it charms the ear with the strains of music, it saves life and property on stormy seas, it annihilates distance and penetrates the cottage of the farmer as easily as it does the mansion of the millionaire. It is the romance and the inspiration of the world's splendid prime."

Blowing out the gas used to be considered the easiest and yet most foolish manner of leaving this vale of tears. Nowadays stepping on the gas is conceded to be far superior to the former method, and a heap more foolish.

One newspaper reports that Pasadena, California is the harbor of 7,000 widows. This fact should lead to a reversal of the olden advice: "Go west young man, go west."

COUNTRY MAN'S AUTOMOBILE

Many people seem to think that the possession of great numbers of automobiles by the country folks is a sign that they are making a lot of money and hat the difficulties that the farmer is supposed to encounter are largely imaginary. Many people living in outlying districts, however, can testify that the automobiles is an absolute necessity for them. With their old team of horses it might have taken them a day to get to the market town again. But with the automobile, they can usually do it in half the time. Time is worth a great eal of money to the farmer now, with the high prices that must be paid for help. Gasoline and tires on his fliver are cheaper than the pay of a farm hand. But when the use of an automobile is abused the upkeep may overbalance their usefulness.

SEVEN DAYS' WORK

Seven days' work is good for nobody.

When a notice was recently published about a railroad employe who had never missed a day's work in fifty years, including Sunday and holidays, B. C. Forbes was not impressed. He asked the question, "How far did he get?" The answer, of course, was that he had never got very far.

The old rule, "Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work," is not primarily a religious one. It is one of the best healh rules and success rules ever devised.

Practically the entire population of Williams turned out to fight a fire that burned over 800 acres of grain stubble and got beyond control of the city's fire department.

Freight car loading in central and and northern California in the first two weeks of July averaged over 40 per cent heavier than in the first two weeks of July, 1922. California traffic is heavier than the average throughout the United States. In the entire country the increase in car loading in June was 20 per cent, while in California the increase was 35 per cent heavier at that time than in the corresponding period last year.

Your $50,0000,00 Inheritance

This is a story told by B. C. Forbes, financial expert:

A certain rich man said to his young son, "Now, son, you know that I've made a great deal of money."

"Yes, sir."

"Well, possibly you feel that you would be well off if at my death I left you, as your share of my estate, the sum of, say, fifty thousand dollars."

"Yes, sir."

"Well, I'm going to do better than that. I'm going to leave you fifty millions. Think of it—fifty millions—that is to say, there will be fifty millions of dollars available to you in this country when I die. All you have to do is to go out and get it. When I die I shall leave my sons not one penny, for I am afraid my money might be a curse to them. But I leave you the same chance for wealth that I had. Now, son, you'd better start hustling."

Campbell W. C. T. U.

A goodly attendance marked the meeting held by the W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. Ella Kennedy last Wednesday with Mrs. Wilson in the chair. The Evangelisttic service was unusually impressive and helpful. Roll call with scripture quotations and Declaration of Principles were also of interest. In the absence of the secretary, Miss Caldwell was appointed to fill that office.

The treasurer's report showed an increase of sixteen new members since last state convention. A request having been received from the management of the House of Rest, (the W. C. T. U. "Air Castle" at Mt. Vernon,) that many articles of furnishings are needed for the comfort and convenience of guests as well as for that of the house mother, it was decided to make such contributions as might be available. A number of articles were donated and at the next meeting it iis hoped there may be a still larger quantity brought in, Mrs. Mae Whitman will attend to the shipping to Mt. Hermon.

It is suggested that another bed-comfort be made ready as soon as possible. Attendance upon the Congress of Reforms at Pacific Grove was talked over. It is expected several from the local union will enjoy an outing at that time, Aug. 4th to 11th.

The reception at Del Monte Hotel, given by the Pacific Grove W. C. T. U., the "Breakfast" at the same place, a program of fine addresses thro' the week by noted speakers, promise delight, not every day enjoyed.

All are welcome whether members of the organization or not. Plan to attend and have "the time of your life." During the program hour Mrs. Wilson led off in a lively discussion upon the talk recently given by Mr. Thomas, also upon the subject of general law enforcement and other matters of interest to the organization.

The next meeting of the Union, Aug. 1, will be held with Mrs. Whitman, of which date occurs the birthdays of two members. Appropriate greetings and flowers are requested for those whose birthdays occur on that day.

Bear in mind,—the time, Wednesday, Aug. 1, 2:30 p. m., place, the home of Mrs. Whitman, the occasion, a little birthday party. Come and bring a friend.

"JUST LIKE DADDY," AN ECONOMIC FORCE

By J. H. PUELICHER
President the American Bankers Association.

J. H. Puelicher

"Like Daddy"—these two words, that express the imitative nature of children, occur to me as I think of our parental responsibilities in respect to both the thriftiness and the thriftlessness of our boys and girls. The accent belongs on both aspects of the case, for we have yet to find a person who is the perfect example of thrift.

Even Ben Franklin admitted his lack of attainment after his years of self-admonishment and self-criticism—and his temptations were not so great as those of today. Every reader will admit his deficiency in thrift. So will I. And what of our children? Will they copy us? Will their attitude toward thrift be "like Daddy's?" Will it be thrifty or thriftless?

It will at least be largely influenced by it. The thrift of the next generation is in the hands of the present. If our children are "out of hand" on their habits, whom have we to blame but ourselves?

Remember this: The next generation will be subject to the same laws of economics, the same rules of success, the same principles of happiness, as prevail today. A habit of thrift is one of the best possible characteristics we can mould into our children's natures during their habit-forming years. Its value will be apparent throughout maturity, whatever their lot, whether at the helm of large enterprise or steering the more humble affairs of a home.

Thrift will be the basic principle in the economic life of our nation and its system of producing and exchanging commodities. Thrift is always both of social and of individual advantage. Each day finds us expanding both in breadth and in depth of our resources of enjoyment and our opportunities for service as we practice thrift.

But how shall we bring about habits of thrift? Is there any other way than by teaching, whether by direct precept or by the unconscious example of our own habits, continually impressing themselves on the receptive minds of the young?

Watch What Happens!

Lubricate your automobile with Zerolene, which costs about half what you pay for many other oils, and watch what happens.

First, you find that your gasoline bills are lower. Repeated tests have demonstrated that, other factors being equal, the car lubricated with Zerolene makes about 5% better gasoline mileage than cars lubricated with other oils.

Second, your car goes from 25% to 50% farther before you need to grind valves or remove carbon. This fact, too, is fully substantiated by numerous tests.

Insist on Zerolene—even if it does cost less.
